

86% of German companies are struggling to fill vacancies, which is a European record

Overview

- Skilled labour shortage = % of companies that have problems filling vacancies
- Not the same figures for every country - we don't want to compare apples with oranges

Insights

- Germany ranks second globally with a rate of 86%, surpassed only by Taiwan
- The worldwide average is 77%
- Europe with the highest percentages among continents

Shortage of skilled labour - Worldwide

